Street Haven
Addictions, Mental Health and Outreach Services – Grant House
Information Manual for Clients

Welcome to Street Haven!

We are honored to accompany you on this important step toward recovery and wellbeing. This program has been carefully designed to provide you with the tools, resources and support necessary to heal, grow and create lasting change in your life.

Whether you are a client in our residential addictions, mental health, or outreach programs, the team at Grant House is committed to your success and well-being. Through a combination of personalized care, group therapy, individual counseling and skill-building activities, we are here to guide and empower you to make meaningful change and progress in your journey toward recovery.

Grant House Program Overview

Street Haven Addiction, Mental Health and Outreach Services (Grant House), are integrated program, providing clients with holistic care and treatment on their journey of recovery.

Addiction Outreach Case Management

A three month 'In Residence' treatment, with accessibility to Pre & Post Treatment supports

Post Treatment Transitional Housing for qualified clients

Mental Health counselling in 1:1 and group formats

Outreach Case Management Services

Outreach services are available for up to one year. Clients receive harm reduction support and psychoeducation on an ongoing basis through a continuum of services that focus on goals and substance use and treatment planning.

For any individual, 24 and over who:

- identifies as a woman,
- lives in the Toronto community, has completed a treatment program, and/ or is eligible for Street Haven residential addiction services
- is seeking support, counselling, or resources with life planning related to substance use goals.

Residential Addictions Services

The residential addictions program at 144 Roxborough Street West, provides client-centred and trauma informed care, in a 3-month intensive treatment program for women or individuals who identify as women. Clients are 24 years of age and up, experiencing challenges associated with substance dependency. A client-centered and trauma informed approach provides a safe environment for women to learn and understand how substance use impacts their lives, relationships, health and well-being, through a variety of therapeutic and holistic methods and techniques.

Grant House is a 24-hour, 11-bed facility that provides an opportunity to share and learn in both group and individual settings. Each woman will have a primary worker and take part in a structured program consisting of daily groups and outings focusing on topics related to self-esteem, communication, wellness, managing emotions, healthy relationships and other areas of health.

In the residential addictions program, you can expect the following services and supports:

- Case Management
- Addictions Counselling- Both individual and group supports
- Training services
 - Rent Smart
 - Life skills
 - Pre-employment workshops

- Housing Supports
- Life Skills and Support: Food program-Client lead cooking, budgeting
- Volunteer support
- Health and wellness: Food programs, yoga, art therapy, physical activities, mental health supports, etc.
- Harm reduction and relapse prevention
- Medical appointments and assessment

As a client in the Addictions, Mental Health, and Outreach program, I understand that the staff at Grant house will be able to provide me with counselling that involves sharing sensitive information, personal and private information that may at times be distressing. During the course of counselling there may be periods of increased anxiety or confusion. The outcome of counselling is often positive; however, the level of satisfaction for any individual is not predictable. Your counsellor is available to support you through the process.

The staff at Grant House is not responsible for any loss or injury I may suffer as a result of any information they may give me or any service that they may provide.

While you are a client at Grant House, you will be participating in group therapy and individual counselling sessions. Counselling is a confidential process designed to help you address your concerns, come to a greater understanding of yourself, and learn effective personal and interpersonal coping strategies. It involves a relationship between you and a trained counsellor to help you accomplish your individual goals.

The Pre-treatment program provides the opportunity for women to begin participating in Grant House programming from the moment they join the waitlist. The program is designed to prepare participants for Grant House and to provide immediate support to our clients. Weekly virtual group sessions are developed as a tool to assess readiness and commitment to residential treatment. This allows women, regardless of where they live, to begin to familiarize themselves with Grant House staff and to build rapport with other women entering the live-in program.

The Post-Treatment Program blends individual case management with an Outreach worker, with weekly aftercare groups, addresses family relationships and employment for fostering healthier lives for up to two years post-treatment. The goal is to promote psychological and emotional wellness, structured support and community connection, and relapse prevention. Services for pre and post treatment are provided virtually.

Upon graduating Grant House, you will be encouraged to attend the weekly post treatment groups, held every Wednesday afternoon from 1:00 – 3:00. This program is designed to provide you with a sense of community and to help keep you connected to Grant House, while supporting your recovery process.

During your last week at Grant House, you will be connected with an outreach counselor for post-treatment case management, with access to their services or up to one year.

If you leave the program early, individual outreach services may be available to you. Decisions will be made on an individual basis.

In the next 90 days, you will participate in various therapeutic interventions that are structured to help you:

- Understand the root causes of your addiction and mental health challenges
- Learn healthy coping strategies and emotional regulation techniques
- Build a support network with participants and professionals
- Establish new, healthier habits and routines
- Cultivate mindfulness, resilience, and self-compassion
- Reconnect with your sense of purpose

What to Expect When you First Arrive at Grant House

- You will be greeted by our intake staff and will be asked to sign various agreements related to your belongings, a service agreement and confidentiality.
- You will hand in your medication (including over the counter), razors, electronics, and any other items which are not permitted.
- You will be urine screened and may be asked to complete a breathalyzer. We do not expect it to be completely free of any substances, but we will expect future tests to show negative results.
- Your belongings will be searched in your presence, and then you will be shown to the room you will share with another resident.
- You will be given a house tour and time to get to know the program, guidelines, schedule and other residents.
- You may make one brief phone call to inform someone that you are safe.

- Coordinate and conduct meetings with participants to develop a program plan in consultation with Ministry staff which will consider court mandated conditions, criminogenic targets, and risk mitigation, and communicate compliance and progress as required/requested.
- Develop comprehensive after care plans for transition and reintegration into the community, including transition/long-term housing.

Expectations

- All expectations remain the same from phase 2
- Actively participate in meeting housing goals
- Attend and participate in housing specific and training activities as listed above

Privileges

- All privileges of phase 2

Treatment Planning

Goal Setting

You will be assigned a primary counsellor in the first couple days of your program. You will work together with your counsellor to determine personal treatment goals, and work toward achieving these goals in your individual sessions, group sessions, assignments and other activities. You will meet with your counsellor at least one time per week to review your goals and re-assess for any additions or changes to the goals.

When setting goals, we encourage you to think about areas of your recovery journey that you feel are the most meaningful and beneficial to your success and wellbeing. They may include some or all of the following social determinants of health: physical health, mental health, finances, family relationships, stress, eating habits, housing, substance use, legal concerns, and support/connections (See Appendix 1).

In addition to your personal goal setting, treatment planning will also include medical supervision, provided by a psychiatrist and medical physician. These meetings and assessments are part of the mandatory treatment programming at Grant House and a schedule for appointments and follow-ups will be provided by your treatment team.

Treatment Schedule – see Appendix 2

Throughout your stay at Grant House, through both phases of programming, your day-to-day will be highly structured. We have created a robust schedule of groups, individual counselling, psychotherapy support, a food and nutrition program, art therapy, as well as outings and group experiences that are culturally rich and enjoyable. The schedule is subject to change as we are always looking to expand and improve the services that we provide.

Confidentiality

As a client in the Addictions, Mental Health, and Outreach program, I understand that the staff at Grant House will be able to provide me with counselling that involves sharing sensitive information, personal and private information that may at times be distressing. During the course of counselling there may be periods of increased anxiety or confusion. The outcome of counselling is often positive; however, the level of satisfaction for any individual is not predictable. Your counsellor is available to support you through the process.

The staff at Grant House is not responsible for any loss or injury I may suffer as a result of any information they may give me or any service that they may provide.

While you are a client at Grant House, you will be participating in group therapy and individual counselling sessions. Counselling is a confidential process designed to help you address your concerns, come to a greater understanding of yourself, and learn effective personal and interpersonal coping strategies. It involves a relationship between you and a trained counsellor to help you accomplish your individual goals.

Confidentiality is a priority at Street Haven, and it must be kept by both staff and clients. Street Haven's policy states that all interactions with Grant House staff – the content of your sessions, your progress in the program, and your files, are confidential. Information is shared amongst the Grant House team in order to provide the best and most comprehensive care.

Consent

Your right to privacy is respected, and staff will only discuss your presence/progress in the program pertaining to the following circumstances:

- You have signed the Confidentiality and Service Agreement, authorizing Street Haven Grant House to release specific information to a specific agency and/or person. This will give you an option to sign consent forms for F&CS, OW/ODSP, lawyer, probation/prole officer, etc.
- You have signed a Release of Information upon your arrival to allow us to contact previous healthcare and treatment providers.

Expectations

- Do not discuss or use the names of other clients outside of Grant House – including 12-step and smart recovery meetings, friends, family, and partners. Do not discuss former clients with current clients and vice versa.

- You must not enter another client's room under any circumstance, even if you are invited to do so.
- Do not introduce clients to anyone without permission, including but not limited to visitors, virtual calls, and at meetings.
- While out as a group or individually do not disclose any identifying information.
- During Facetime/video calls, ensure other clients are not visible. Photographing/recording others is strictly prohibited.

Limits to Confidentiality

Staff cannot guarantee confidentiality under the following circumstances:

- If I admit wanting to harm myself
- If I admit wanting to harm somebody else
- If my records at Grant House are subpoenaed to court, Grant House is bound by law to comply with such requests
- The Ontario's Child and Family Services (CFSA) section 72 requires citizens, including those working in professional capacity report any disclosure or suspicion of child abuse or neglect to The Children's Aid Society (CAS). Therefore, staff at Grant House are required to report any disclosure or suspicion of child abuse (including and not limited to physical and emotional harm) and/or neglect to CAS.

Use of Technology

- You are permitted to bring one device to Grant House (e.g., cellphone, tablet, laptop etc.) which can be accessed at a designated time
- All personal technology will be stored in the main office. Please note that Grant House is not responsible for any items that are lost or damaged
- Your cellphone should not be accessed during program hours and is not permitted in the group room
- Your cellphone will not be accessible during your orientation week, and will be locked in the manager's office

- There is a house phone available for client use
- Cellphones and other technology may be accessed from the main office, only during approved times (as indicated by the chart below)

Urine Screening for Substance Use

- On a weekly basis, you will be asked to provide a urine sample to one of the counsellors
- The counsellor will test your urine with a testing panel that is obtained through our resident doctor
- Staff will also request a sample randomly from time to time, or if there is suspected use
- Results of your urine screen will be shared with you and addressed accordingly

Behavioral Contracts

If you engage in behavior that violates Grant House policies, treatment staff may initial a contract prior to discussing discharge. This involves setting expectations for your behavior, outlining inappropriate behaviors, as well as the steps your are expected to take.

Identification of Behaviour

- Staff will document, and clearly communicate the specific behavior that is of concern, including date, time and details of the incident
- Your primary counsellor will identify the behaviour with you, and you will be given an opportunity to discuss your behavior and its impact on the facility, other clients, staff and yourself

Documentation

A meeting will be held between you and your primary counsellor to establish a contract. This contract will include:

- A description of the inappropriate behavior
- Specific changes in behavior expected within a set timeframe
- A clear outline of the consequences for failing to meet these expectations; including potential discharge
- Available supports to help you address the behavior
- Strategies to employ when faced with difficult or potentially triggering situations

Monitoring

Your progress will be monitored according to the behavioral contract. This will include check ins with staff members, review of treatment goals and your contract, and addressing ongoing concerns.

Workplace Violence, Bullying and Harassment Policy

Street Haven is committed to providing a workplace that is free from violence and harassment by taking every reasonable precaution to minimize such risk in the workplace. This commitment includes investigating all incidents and complaints of workplace violence and harassment in a fair and timely manner while respecting as much as possible the privacy of all concerned.

The purpose of this policy is to outline the expectations for client behaviour within the Street Haven community, and to establish a standard of behavior that promotes a respectful, dignified, and professional environment for all participants, staff, and volunteers, across all Street Haven programs. The code of conduct supports the principles of trauma informed care by recognizing the importance of respect, dignity and empowerment in all client interactions.

Harassment and discrimination will not be tolerated, condoned, or ignored. All individuals have the right to participate in an environment free from harassment and discrimination based on race, ancestry, place of origin, color, ethnic origin, citizenship, creed, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, marital status, family status, disability, or any other characteristic protected by the Ontario Human Rights Code

Definitions

“Workplace violence” is: (a) the exercise of physical force by a person against a worker in a workplace that causes, or could cause, physical injury to the worker; and/or (b) an attempt to exercise physical force against a worker in a workplace that could cause physical injury to the worker; and/or (c) a statement or behaviour that it is reasonable for a worker to interpret as a threat to exercise physical force against the worker, in a workplace, that could cause physical injury to the worker.

“Workplace harassment” is (a) engaging in a course of vexatious comment or conduct against a worker in a workplace that is known or ought reasonably be known to be unwelcome, or (b) workplace sexual harassment. The definition of workplace harassment includes the Ontario Human Rights Codes

Prohibited Grounds (gender, race, sexual orientation, ancestry, colour, place of origin, creed, age, record of offences, marital status, family status, and disability) as well as “personal harassment” or “bullying” which is a form of obvious or subtle aggression that involves deliberately making an employee’s work experience unpleasant.

“Workplace sexual harassment” is:

- (a) engaging in a course of vexatious comment or conduct against a worker in a workplace because of sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression, where the course of comment or conduct is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome; or
- (b) making a sexual solicitation or advance where the person making the solicitation or advance is in a position to confer, grant or deny a benefit or advancement to the worker and the person knows or ought reasonably to know that the solicitation or advance is unwelcome.

“Harassment” is any unwelcome behavior that demeans, humiliates, or embarrasses a person, and that a reasonable person should have known would be unwelcome. This includes, but is not limited to:

- Verbal Harassment: Insults, derogatory comments, or slurs.
- Physical Harassment: Unwanted physical contact or threats.
- Visual Harassment: Display of offensive materials or gestures.

“Discrimination” is any practice or behavior, whether intentional or not, that has a negative impact on an individual or group based on a protected characteristic. This includes, but is not limited to:

- Direct Discrimination: Unequal treatment based on a protected characteristic.

Indirect Discrimination: Policies or practices that appear neutral but result in unequal treatment.

As a client, I will:

- Adhere to the policy and model respectful behavior.
- Report any incidents of harassment or discrimination.
- Participate in training sessions as required.
- Report any incidents of bullying, harassment, abuse, or discrimination to the program director or designated officer.

Client Discharge Policy

Discharge may occur when the client:

- Achieves his/her goals and is ready to discontinue service
- No longer wants to stay in service or receive service
- Refuses to adhere to the policies and procedures of the Street Haven site (e.g. violent behaviour or weapons possession, drug use, etc.);
- Has needs that exceed the resources and expertise of the services.

In some cases, the site may require a client to be discharged on an involuntary or emergency basis:

- leaves the grounds without permission or without informing the Centre's staff
- is using alcohol or other unapproved substances or brings them into the Centre
- Gambles
- refuses to attend, or is absent without permission, from any aspect of the program
- exhibits behavior that interferes with other clients' well-being or generally is non-compliant with the treatment program
- is absent for two (2) or more days from the program due to illness or other reasons. The client may be offered to continue treatment in a subsequent cycle
- is demonstrating abusive or violent behavior
- is physically or medically unable to tolerate the demands of the program, if the Grant House staff feels her health may be at risk, or if she requires medical care that Grant House cannot provide. Grant House will facilitate a referral to a medical treatment centre, when required
- refuses to submit to urine samples for drug testing within a reasonable time
- Tampers with urine samples
- Does not participate in mandatory aspects of treatment planning, implementation, and programming

Anti-Racism Anti-Oppression Statement

We recognize the intrinsic value of culture and believe that cultural diversity is a source of enrichment and strength.

We believe that every woman is unique and must be treated with respect and equity. That every woman has the inherent right to social and economic justice and that every woman has the right to self-determination and a right to contribute to society in her own way.

We recognize that all women face misogyny and sexism; however, some bear an additional burden of oppression due to racism and other forms of discrimination.

We recognize that all members of non-dominant racial and ethno-cultural groups suffer from racism and systemic discrimination.

We recognize that each group experiences discrimination and racism differently depending on the history of each group, the power and privilege it holds, and how visible its members differ from the dominant group in Canada. .

Street Haven's analysis of racism recognizes the dynamics of power and privilege and how these tools serve to perpetuate racial oppression in society.

I acknowledge and will adhere to the content of this form and the frame- work in which the organization operates.

Client Allergies

- Grant House is committed to supporting clients with severe food allergies, including those who have life threatening anaphylaxis allergies. We will make reasonable efforts to ensure that food in the house does not contain allergens that may cause severe health reactions.
- Clients with anaphylaxis must inform staff during the intake process, and in writing of the specific allergens that pose a risk to their health. A plan to address food allergies will be developed in collaboration with the client, the treatment team and management.
- Client will be asked to bring an epi pen with them to Grant House, and if they do not have one, one will be provided.
- While Grant House can make every reasonable effort to accommodate clients with allergies, we are unable to cater to all individual food preferences and sensitivities.
- Clients are encouraged to notify staff in advance of any non-allergic dietary preferences or sensitivities, but we cannot guarantee the ability to fully meet these preferences on a regular basis.
- Grant House will provide education and support regarding meal planning, and clients will be invited to participate in group discussions around nutrition and food preferences to promote a collaborative environment.

Fire Procedure

STREET HAVEN ADDICTION SERVICES - Grant House Fire Procedure

In case of fire:

- YELL "FIRE"
- Leave the area, closing the door behind you.
- Pull the nearest wall-mounted fire alarm.
- Call 911 (we are located at 144 Roxborough Street West)
- Leave the building by the nearest exit.

Upon hearing the fire alarm:

- Leave the building by the nearest exit.
- Close all the doors behind you.

CAUTION

If smoke is heavy in the hallway to the exit it may be safer to stay in the area where you are. Close the door, and seal the cracks, preferably with a towel or sheet. Stay close to the floor if smoke starts entering the room. Go to the window and signal for help. Try to stay calm.

Exits

- If you are on the third floor and are prevented from coming downstairs, proceed to the balcony and call for help from there.
- If you are on the second floor, your exit is the front door.
- If you are in the basement, your fire exit is the door in the laundry room.

Once you have exited the building we'll meet at the corner of Roxborough St. West and Avenue Road, at the entrance to the Hare Krishna building.
